

AGENDA

DOROTHEA DIX PARK

Master Plan Advisory Committee
Workshop #1, October 18, 2016
Pluralistic Parkmaking: Engaging the Community
Five Points Center for Active Adults- 2000 Noble Road, Raleigh

AGENDA

- 7:00 pm Welcome and Introductions – Kate Pearce, AICP, City of Raleigh
- 7:15 pm “What’s a Park?” – Daniel Howe, FASLA, AICP
- 8:00 pm “Who Decides?” – Daniel Howe, FASLA, AICP & Alma Blount, Duke University
- 8:30 pm “Social Media and Public Discourse” – Jay Dawkins, Co-Founder and CEO, Cityzen
- 9:00 pm Wrap-Up and Adjourn – Kate Pearce, AICP, City of Raleigh

FACILITATORS

Daniel Howe, FASLA, AICP is Assistant Professor of Practice in the College of Design at North Carolina State University. He is also a writer and consultant in private practice in Raleigh. Dan has an extensive background in City Planning, and was formerly Assistant City Manager for the City of Raleigh.

Alma G. Blount is Director of the Hart Leadership School in the Terry Sanford School of Public Policy at Duke University in Durham, NC. Alma teaches courses at Duke about civic participation and grassroots politics, systems analysis and problem solving within organizations, and leadership.

Jay Dawkins is Co-Founder and CEO of Cityzen, a tool to help organizations collect information from, understand and engage their online audience. Some of Cityzen’s clients include Capitol Broadcasting and the City of Raleigh.

contact info:

Kate Pearce, Senior Planner
kate.pearce@raleighnc.gov
919.996.4855

Grayson Maughan, Park Planner
grayson.maughan@raleighnc.gov
919.996.4793