Living in Color Exhibit Opening Reception

1:30 - 3:30pm | The Chapel

Dix Park, in partnership with Raleigh Film and Art Festival hosts a curated Black History Month exhibition. Opening reception includes drinks, hors d'oeuvres, spoken word + theatrical dance performances, and live music.

Tickets are free and not required, but your RSVP helps us plan for attendance.

Following the opening, the Living in Color Exhibit will be open through Sunday, February 26th. Visit dixpark.org for open hours.

Arts + Culture

Connect + Create: Craft Broom Making

6 - 7:30pm | The Chapel

In partnership with Artspace, join us for a hands-on, art workshop on the traditional craft of broom making. Learn to create two beautiful and functional Appalachian brooms. All ages welcome.

Registration is required, opens 2 weeks in advance.

Dix Park continues to strive to be accessible and welcoming for visitors, including those with disabilities. Currently, outdoor areas, including some park spaces where programs and events occur, have uneven surfaces and are not fully accessible. Interested in attending a program or event? Raleigh Parks Inclusion Services works with community members to support participation. Contact us for more information.

All Programs + Classes are free thanks to Dix Park Conservancy Donors!
